

Sigma Delta Chi Foundation of Washington, D.C.

Celebrating more than 50 years of service to journalism.

P.O. Box 19555 Washington, D.C. 20036

Required for your application:

1. Please complete the attached form and be sure to include contacts (email/snail mail) where we can reach you after the school year ends.
2. Please share your best work. Submit no more than three pieces that showcase your journalism (text stories, video reports, audio/podcasts, photo essays.) You may include explanations of any specific challenges you faced in executing this work.
3. In 500 written words or less, tell us what you hope to achieve in journalism. What stories would you like to tell or what kind of reporting would you hope to do?
4. In 500 written words or less, tell us how this scholarship will support your interest in journalism. What will you be able to do if you are awarded this scholarship?

* Items 1-4 should be submitted in one file to Scholarships@SDXDC.org

5. Please ask a recommender for a short, written evaluation of your potential in journalism. Your recommender may be a professor/instructor or an editor/mentor who can attest to your ability and capacity for future growth as a journalist. Please ask them to include their contact information as well.

*The recommendation should be sent directly to: Recommendation@SDXDC.org

6. Please have your college/university send an official transcript to: Transcript@SDXDC.org
